I miss you Pat! You were more than my best friend, you were like a sister to me. I know you are no longer suffering, but I am devastated. I miss our talks, I miss our many shenanigans, I MISS YOU! You were one special person! Rest peacefully my friend!

I am who I am because of you mom. There is a hole you have left that can never be filled, and I will forever go through life feeling incomplete without you here. I hope you know how dearly I loved you, I hope, as an atheist that I am wrong and that I will see you again someday. I love you mom, my heart is shattered without you, this world did not deserve you mom and I don't think I will ever move passed this. Thank you for everything you've done for me. All my love, forever, Michael.

My heart hurts and I miss my little sister. It will take forever to stop missing you. So many of your large family and millions of friends have reached out with love and thoughts of you. My mind keeps playing over memories from our childhood, the times you covered for me as teenagers and the many talks we had. I wish I could have waived a magic wand and given you the best all your life. But you always smiled, you knew how to make so many friends and no matter what you were always cheerful. I love you, Pat and you??I'll never know how much I could hug you one more time. Love, Sue

My dearest momma Pat. You have made my life so enjoyable since we met when I was just a kid. The places you would take me, the restaurants we would eat, the parks we would go to, the ceramic things we would paint. etc. just the joy of seeing you smile when I would show up. The love and compassion you showed to every child whether they were yours or someone else??s. You we??re definitely a one of a kind person in this world. I could write a book about you and your life. I will never forget you and will forever be sadden by your unexpected passing. I love you So much but will see you again one day.
